

Kevlar® Fire Poi Wicking Webbing Tape

- Fire Poi wicking is a 100% para-aramid based webbing that is specifically designed for use with paraffin solvents and oils.
- It is extremely resistant to both heat and friction and capable of absorbing large quantities of fuel.
- The Kevlar Wicking has been specially designed with a weave structure which holds 20% more fuel than other wickings.
- The weave has been developed to minimise fray and extend the life time of the tape. If used properly the wick will last several hundred burns if not more.

Applications

- Used for wicking in Fire Poi.
